NEVEL BLOUSE FOR WINTER SUIT WEAR

BY ELOISE.
If you can tear yourself away from the pretty frocks and wraps and take a look at blouses you will find some very enchanting models which seem to be new in ideas both as to design and material. If you have bought one of the new fashion suits you will be sure to want to look about the blouse shops for the suit is not complete until a costume blouse accompanies it. The overblouse, as is plainly evident, is the most popular style and it is presented in many more variations than one expects.

Death Valley by the ghosts, to the basement, which was decorated with Halloween colors, and with corn stalks and leaves. Halloween games were enjoyed, prizes being awarded to Warren Marshall of Rock Island, Miss Norma Bayes and Carl Anderson of Moline, and Miss Hilda Anderson of East Moline. The following program was given, Richard Ramser, president of the league of the First Methodist church of Rock Island, presiding:
Selections—Orchestra.
Prayer—H. P. Brown.
Reading—Mrs. Connelly, Moline.
Address—Rev. Jesse Dadds, pastor of First Methodist church, Moline.
Selection—Orchestra.
Address—Rev. Joseph A. Chapman.
Reading—Mrs. Connelly.
Remarks—Earl Hiett, president of league of Methodist church, Moline.
Selection—Orchestra.
After the program there was an informal discussion of the matter of a permanent Epworth league organization for the seven societies represented, and each league appointed two members for a committee on organization. Rev. Chapman was elected chairman, and Miss Hilda Anderson, secretary. The committee will meet in the near future in Moline.
After the program, refreshments were served.

Assisting Mrs. Samuelson in receiving the guests during the afternoon will be Mrs. Elbert Don.

Settlement Halloween Frolic.
Sixty-five young people enjoyed the annual Halloween frolic last evening at the West End settlement, and proved one of the most interesting affairs of the season. The guests gathered in the upstairs room, all coming masked, and following a leader they took a spooky walk around the yard before entering the gymnasium, where the frolic began. The room had been decorated with cornstalks and the usual Halloween suggestions. Games and contests suitable to the season were enjoyed for a while and then the trays were passed. These carried out the Halloween suggestion in the napkins, refreshments and favors. Individual pumpkin pies and whipped cream, coffee and oranges, paper bags filled with candy corn and red apples constituted the menu.

Spent Evening with Pastor.
Members of the session of the First United Presbyterian church and their wives enjoyed an evening of sociability when they went to the parsonage, 1014 Fourteenth and a-half street, with the pastor, Dr. J. H. Gibson, and his sister, Mrs. Emma Brown. Refreshments which the guests had brought with them were served late in the evening.

Miss Olive Kempe of 3322 Eighth avenue, whose marriage to Neil Rosenberg of Superior, Wis., will be solemnized early this evening, was the honoree at a small informal family dinner given for her last evening by Mrs. Olaf Peterson at her home, 932 Fifth avenue, Moline. The after-dinner hours were passed socially.

Halloween Party at School.
About seventy young people of the Immanuel Lutheran church enjoyed a Halloween party last evening in the school house. The hall was decorated with cornstalks and Halloween decorations, and the evening was spent in Halloween games. The members elected Raymond Lobse king and Mabel Theus queen of the affair: two sides were chosen and a game of baseball enjoyed, in which the queen's side was victorious. Ghost stories were told, and Miss Edna Theus, as a fortune teller, entertained the guests. Later a cafeteria luncheon was served. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Miss Edna Theus, Miss Rose Lutz, Miss Beniah Fluegel, Walter Wilhelm, Wallace Koenig and Fred Borch. The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving sociable.

To Wed Thursday.
The marriage of Miss Mary Van Hoes, daughter of Henry Van Hoes, 202 Ninth street, and Robert Lorch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lorch of 531 Fourth street, will be solemnized Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at the Sacred Heart Catholic church. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. P. Danks of the St. Joseph church. Miss Alice Schaefer of Moline will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Ben Grider of Rock Island will serve as best man. A wedding breakfast will be served at the Hotel Blackhawk for the immediate relatives.

Pan-Hellenic Social Meeting.
The Tri-City Pan-Hellenic association held a delightful social meeting yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of the guest, Mrs. E. N. Porter, 576 Fifty-first street, Moline. There were nine different fraternities represented, the members arriving early by in the afternoon and remaining for the evening. A delicious picnic supper was served. The next meeting will be held November 27, the place to be announced later.

All Bazar and Coffee.
All kinds of bakery and pantry goods will be on sale Friday afternoon at the annual bazar and coffee to be sponsored by the ladies aid society of the First Methodist church, in the Sunday school rooms. Besides there will be booths for the sale of rugs, aprons, baby articles, candy, caps and bags, fancy work, handkerchiefs, tea towels and hosiery. Coffee is to be served during the hours and there will also be a program.

Club to Give Old Fashioned Party.
The Rock Island Arsenal Golf club is to be the scene of an old-fashioned Halloween party Saturday evening. An old-fashioned Halloween dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock, and will be followed by dancing. The hall will be appropriately decorated with corn shocks, pumpkins, etc. Music will be furnished by Wray's orchestra. Plans are to have the affair as much like an old-fashioned family party, Halloween style, as possible. It is a club affair, given for the club members, and a large attendance is expected.

Hostess At Informal Tea.
Mrs. Louise M. Copp was hostess at a charming small informal tea at her home, 743 Twentieth street, late yesterday afternoon
